THE PROGRAMME

3RD EDITION

ATOPÉMONOS BAILANDO is the programme of artistic residencies and research co-organised by the dance company Colectivo Glovo and the Department of Culture, Tourism and Language of the City Council of Lugo, with the support of the Xunta de Galicia through Agadic, aimed at dance and movement arts creators from Galicia, the rest of Spain, Portugal and Costa Rica, with the MIHL Museum in the city of Lugo as its epicentre.

2022 EDITION

2023 EDITION

OBJECTIVES

The project seeks to promote and support creation and research in dance and movement arts by Galician, national and international companies, providing a space for creative and research residencies in order to disseminate and bring the processes of creation in dance and movement arts closer to the public.

ATOPÉMONOS BAILANDO aims to generate collaboration and networking of national and international professional agents through the exchange of artists and company information.

THE OPEN CALL

Dance and movement arts professionals based in Spain and/or Portugal are invited to submit their projects for the selection of 8 artistic and/or research residencies (technical residencies are excluded) to be carried out between April and November 2024 (five of them in Lugo, Galicia, and three on an exchange basis with structures in Portugal and Costa Rica).

The programme of artistic and research residencies "ATOPÉMONOS BAILANDO" 2024 also enables the exchange of three of the residencies selected through this call with three other international residency programmes.

These exchanges are the result of collaborations between the AB Residencies in Lugo and entities in Portugal and Costa Rica.

The AB residencies are intended for individual professionals or teams who base their artistic work around movement and the body.

THE VALUATION

A project assessment committee made up of professionals from the sector will be appointed.

Approximately 50% of the residencies will be reserved for professionals from Galicia.

The resolution will be published at the end of March 2024 on the website www.atopemonosbailando.com and on its social networks.

The dance company Colectivo Glovo formed by Esther Latorre (Galicia) and Hugo Pereira (Porto), together with Manu Lago are the managers of the programme of artistic and research residency programme Atopémonos Bailando.

Based in Galicia, they work on the dance creations for theatre, street and non-conventional spaces, as well as cultural managers, since one of their main objectives is to increase the scope of the dynamics of the body and generate networks between artists, entities and citizens.
